e-News

You may also sign up to receive our free e-newsletter at hearingloss.org

Chapter Network – Visit one of our chapters nationwide to meet and talk with others who also have hearing loss. Chapters are supportive groups where people with all levels of hearing loss come together to share and learn – and where it’s okay not to hear well. You can learn about coping strategies, the latest technology, local resources and more. Visit our website to find a chapter near you.

Annual Convention and Special Events – HLA A hosts the nation’s largest communication accessible convention for people with hearing loss. HLA A offers a complimentary registration for veterans who have never attended a HLA A Convention. Visit the Convention page of our website for the latest updates.

Online Community – HLA A offers a robust Online Community which includes:

- Captioned Webinars – presented monthly on a variety of topics related to hearing loss;
- Message Boards – where you can engage with other HLA A members by posting a questions

Check the Online Community section of hearingloss.org for blogs, young adult community, and more.
